THE NGG, ENG FAMILY BENEVOLENT ASSOCIATION, LOS ANGELES

Friendships Grow at NGG Outing

Members of the Next Generation Group and their guests enjoyed beach volleyball, favorable climate, barbecued treats, and more importantly, social interaction at its first summer social on Saturday July 21, in Long Beach at Rick Eng's waterfront condominium complex. The day began in mid-afternoon with some volleyball followed by burgers and hot dogs while enjoying a roof deck vista of the Pacific. NGG President Lance Eng thanked members for coming out and supporting the group as well welcomed new members to help plot out activities and programs that will help the group increase membership.

Convention 2007: All Eng Eyes on China this October

Taishan City in China will unfurl the welcome mat as member of the Eng Family Association worldwide and their guests participate in celebration and fellowship at the 2007 World Eng Family Convention, October 28-29.

The cost for convention attendees from the United States is $200 (U.S.) per person. The fee will be waived for contributions more than $300 (U.S.) per individual. The cost includes accommodations and meals but does not include overseas transportation.

After the Convention closes, three deluxe tours of different destinations have been arranged: the five Eastern Chinese Cities Tour (Nanjing, Wuxi, Suzhou, Shanghai, and Hangzhou); the Guilin-Kunming-Dali Tour; and the Hainan Island Tour. You are encouraged to participate in these tours. Contact your local chapter to sign up and pay at the time of registration upon your arrival at the Convention. The L.A. Chapter office is located at 418 Cottage Home, Los Angeles CA 90012. Phone: (323) 227-8265.
