THE NGG, ENG FAMILY BENEVOLENT ASSOCIATION, LOS ANGELES

Review: Spring Banquet 2007

The annual spring banquet of the Eng Family Benevolent Association, Los Angeles Chapter, drew a full house at the Empress Pavilion Restaurant in L.A. Chinatown, Sunday, April 22. Local dignitaries mingled with guests from out of town. Among the special attendees were Thomas Ng, chief advisor, World Eng Association and U.S. National Eng Association, San Francisco; Nelson Ng, grand president, U.S. National Eng Association, Seattle; and presidents, elders and advisors from San Francisco, Sacramento, Oakland, Stockton and Phoenix chapters of the Wong Family Association. Other honored guests included Judy Chu, vice chair, California Board of Equalization's 4th District; Mike Eng, state assemblyman, 49th District; and Jones Moy, chief of police, Monterey Park. The evening was filled with speeches and singing, but one of the evening highlights was a humorous skit performed by NGG members Janice Ng, Darren Ng and Lance Eng. The allegorical play was organized and narrated by Jolson and Felicia Ng. Early in the day at the Eng Family headquarters in Chinatown, a ceremony took place to honor the family ancestors, notably Ng Zisui. Guests at the assembly also included members of the Wong family Association.
